Please be clear about the divergences between class notes and the textbook's concepts, not only by specifying them for those in class but also sending emails to remind everyone and summarizing them in a document.

Mark is the best TA I've ever had clear, helpful, relaxed, prepared, and always posting notes online and responding promptly to emails.

Knows what he's talking about. Expands into new material if asked; willing to schedule office hours- relaxed and friendly.

Excellent teacher. The notes on his blog online are very helpful and recitation are very informative and stay interesting.

Mark was very helpful and made difficult material easy to understand. The lectures were interesting and Mark was very good at answering questions.

Please slow down in your explanations. Your notes are incredibly helpful- please write a textbook!

Mark is extremely intelligent and clearly has a handle on teaching. This runs parallel, however, to the course material which is incredibly difficult and dense.

Great TA.

I appreciate Mark's humor. It would also be great if he could slow down a little from time to time.
